

Peter Archos

PARTNER

Peter is a commercial lawyer with a particular interest in trade practices, intellectual law and contracts. Admitted to practice in 1982, Peter has built a wealth of experience in providing advices to corporate clients in these fields.

Expertise

- Commercial
- Property

Experience

In the trade practices area, Peter's experience includes:

- Advising corporations in relations to mergers and acquisitions, manufacturers' liability and compliance with the law and systems designed to prevent breaches of the law
- Undertaking property and development matters and acts for owners of commercial property interests

Peter has acted on a range of matters including:

- Representing clients in the Federal Courts, Supreme and District Courts of Queensland and Supreme Courts of Victoria
- Forming a wide range of contracts for commercial clients in a broad range of industries
- Conducting negotiations with the ACCC
- Advising corporations and individuals on copyright and intellectual property
- Acting for clients in complex litigation matters arising out of contractual provision

